Voted 2012 Touchstone Facility of the Year and home to the 2016 Corona City Championship, Dos Lagos golf course is one of the key anchor properties of the 534 acre mixed used development that is open for daily public play. The 18 hole championship daily fee course, designed by Matthew E. Dye of the famed Dye family, is a par 70 playing to 6,544 yards with four sets of tees. With a "park" like feel, our Corona golf course provides a challenging and enjoyable round of golf for all skill levels, featuring dramatic views of the Cleveland National Forest, an oasis of restored waterways, wetlands and rolling hillside
